REFORM OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS (GS 1856A and GS 1856B)

16 The motion

‘That this Synod request that the Archbishops’ Council establish a working group with members from each House of the General Synod to prepare the Church of England’s official response to the Government’s consultation on the reform of the House of Lords and that any such Church of England response should be tabled at General Synod in February 2012 for debate and approval.’

was moved.

39 The amendment (Item 39 Order Paper IV) was carried.

40 The amendment (Item 40 Order Paper IV) fell.

16 The motion (as amended by Item 39) read:

‘That this Synod, welcoming both the Archbishops’ submission to the Joint Parliamentary Committee on the draft Bill on House of Lords Reform and the extension of the Episcopal group on Lords Reform to include members of the other two Houses of Synod:

(a) invite the extended group to bring to the February 2013 group of sessions

(i) an assessment of the implications for the church and nation of any Bill to be brought forward by the Government,

(ii) recommendations for changes in custom and practice to accommodate any new requirements of the Church; and

(b) recognising the unpredictable nature of the passage of any such Bill through parliament, request that the extended group allow Synod members to contribute to published statements by alerting them in advance, by email where necessary, and inviting comments.’

DIVISION OF TEXT

Under Standing Order 23, the Chair, with the general consent of the Synod, divided the motion into two parts as follows:

Part A

‘That this Synod, welcoming both the Archbishops’ submission to the Joint Parliamentary Committee on the draft Bill on House of Lords Reform and the extension of the Episcopal group on Lords Reform to include members of the other two Houses of Synod:

- (a) invite the extended group to bring to the February 2013 group of sessions
 - (i) an assessment of the implications for the church and nation of any Bill to be brought forward by the Government,
 - (ii) recommendations for changes in custom and practice to accommodate any new requirements of the Church.’

- (ii) recommendations for changes in custom and practice to accommodate any new requirements of the Church.’

HEALTH CARE AND THE CHURCH'S MISSION: REPORT FROM THE MISSION AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS COUNCIL (GS 1857)

17 The motion

‘That this Synod, mindful of our Lord’s ministry of healing and his charge to his disciples to heal the sick in his name:

(a) affirm the ministry of all who promote health and wholeness in body, mind and spirit, and call upon Her Majesty’s Government to ensure that chaplaincy provision remains part of the core structure of a National Health Service committed to physical, mental and spiritual health;

(b) call upon Her Majesty’s Government to apply as the test to any proposed changes to the NHS whether they are best calculated to secure the provision throughout the country of effective and efficient healthcare services provided free at the point of delivery and according to clinical need;

(c) commend the work of mission agencies and the networks of the Anglican Communion in embodying the churches’ contribution to health and wholeness and promoting fairer sharing of health resources worldwide.’

was moved.

41 The amendment (Item 41 Order Paper IV) was lost.

42 The amendment (Item 42 Order Paper IV) was carried.

17 The motion (as amended by Item 42)

‘That this Synod, mindful of our Lord’s ministry of healing and his charge to his disciples to heal the sick in his name:

(a) affirm the ministry of all who promote health and wholeness in body, mind and spirit, and, recognising in particular the role of chaplains in the NHS as an expression of the Church of England’s commitment to minister to all in the community, whether as patients or healthcare workers, call upon Her Majesty’s Government to ensure that chaplaincy provision remains part of the core structure of a National Health Service committed to physical, mental and spiritual health;

(b) call upon Her Majesty’s Government to apply as the test to any proposed changes to the NHS whether they are best calculated to secure the provision throughout the country of effective and efficient healthcare services provided free at the point of delivery and according to clinical need;

(c) commend the work of mission agencies and the networks of the Anglican Communion in embodying the churches’ contribution to health and wholeness and promoting fairer sharing of health resources worldwide.’
